

MICHOACÁN

COURTESY OF THE MEXICO STATE GOVERNMENT

Interior Secretary Miguel Osorio Chong (C) at a meeting to review progress of a security plan for Michoacán.

Segob evaluates joint operations

Interior Secretary Miguel Ángel Osorio Chong chaired a meeting to review progress of the Michoacán Plan "Together we will succeed", which involved 11 secretaries of state and state authorities.

The meeting was also attended by the Michoacán Security and Development Commissioner Alfredo Castillo and Michoacán's newly instated Gov. Salvador Jara. The governor announced advances in security, infrastructure, education, health and social development in the state.

In subsequent press conference, officials disclosed the issues discussed at the meeting, including the state's budget for the next year and also clear foundations were established to continue governing in a coordinated way.

Osorio Chong praised the support and backing of the federal government for the State, headed by Jara, since the launch of the Michoacán Plan.

Officials said the meeting established the charge of the State's internal politics. At the press conference it was highlighted that the the plan needs to be implemented in coordination with the state authorities to ensure the safety of Michoacán and the integral development.

Also participating in the meeting were various secretaries including the Secretary of Social Development

Rosario Robles Berlanga, Secretary of Health Mercedes Juan López, the Secretary of Public Education Emilio Chuayffet Chemor, the Secretary of Urban Development Jorge Carlos Ramírez Marín and the Secretary of Communications and Transport Gerardo Ruiz Esparza.

Other secretaries in attendance were the Secretary of Agriculture Enrique Martínez y Martínez, the Secretary of the Environment Juan José Guerra Abud and the General Director of the National Water Commission (Conagua) David Korenfeld.

The Technical Secretary of the President's Cabinet Roberto Padilla Domínguez and federal representatives of various agencies.

THE NEWS