

Fecha 21.07.2014	Sección The Nation	Página 6
---------------------	-----------------------	-------------

CHIAPAS

Community Diner opens in Los Altos

As part of the initiative the National Crusade Against Hunger, Social Development Secretariat (SEDESOL), Rosario Robles

Berlanga and Gov. Manuel Velasco Coello, opened the first Community Diner in the region of Los Altos de Chiapas in the Zinacatán municipality.

The room is part of the National System Against Hunger (Sinha-mbre), in which the construction of spaces was decreed to alleviate hunger in the states.

Robles and Velasco also launched the Hunger Fair in order to bring the support and benefits of social programs to more families in remote communities.

The National Crusade Against Hunger brings benefits to 97 municipalities in Chiapas. Currently 250,000 seniors receive support from the program. Also, the government has implemented more than 70,000 actions as part of the Decent Housing Program and almost 6,500 initiatives as part of the Temporary Jobs Program.

THE NEWS

The National Crusade Against Hunger has benefited 97 municipalities.

